

THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, May 29, 2008

- Dr. Stoll finished a peer review for an article in Quest. In the physical activity field in higher education, there's no single journal that covers more topics of common interest than Quest. Each issue examines not only critical issues facing physical educators, but also research developments in the sport sciences and other sub-disciplines of human movement. This was her third review this academic year.
- Dr. Stoll and the Center team was solicited by Dr. Slava Popovsky to prepare a paper for the St. Petersburg's Lesgaft Physical Culture State University to publish in an international scientific conference they will be holding September 24-27, 2008--Physical Culture and Sports: Analysis of Social Processes. Dr. Popovsky often lectures to Dr. Stoll's classes when he visits the Palouse. A former USSR Olympic volleyball coach, he now resides and teaches in the Seattle area.
- Dr. Stoll, Dr. Angela Lumpkin (Kansas State University, and Dr. Jennifer Beller of WSU are in process of submitting a proposal for a text in Sport Ethics to academic presses in the US.
- The Center was contacted by SUNY Potsdam for information to help support their course: The Politics of Basketball.
